

AMCham Presidents Meeting Brussels 3rd March 2010

The first ever gathering of AmCham Presidents in Europe and EurAsia was held at the AmCham EU premises in Brussels on 3rd March 2010. This meeting will be chaired by John Vassallo, Chair of AmCham EU and the objectives of the meeting were to:

- Build more effective relationships between the different Chambers in the ECACC network at the Presidential level
- Explore the priorities of the European Union and how AmChams can collectively push for optimal business conditions for US companies throughout Europe
- Look for further opportunities for cooperation between AmChams in 2010 and beyond, to benefit all our member companies

AmCham Malta was represented by its President Mr. Pierre Attard.
