

Dr. Anton L. Tabone elected President of the American Chamber of Commerce, Malta

Sunday, 13 May, 2007

Dr. Anton L. Tabone has been elected president of the American Chamber of Commerce, Malta (AmCham, Malta). Dr Tabone succeeds Mark Miceli Farrugia, who was recently appointed Malta's Ambassador to the United States of America.

In his first address as President of AmCham, Malta, Dr. Tabone said that "he is committed to enhance relations with various bodies in the US in order to continue to facilitate closer business and trade relationships between Malta and the United States."

Dr Tabone also outlined a series of priorities which AmCham, Malta will be working on over the coming months. These include amongst others, a series of seminars on subjects related to commerce and financial services, which will see the participation of high-profile guest speakers from America. Dr Tabone also stressed on the importance of maintaining close collaboration with the United States of America Embassy in Malta, in particular with its Commercial Division. Other priorities include, the re-launching of the current AmCham - Malta website and embarking on a membership drive.

AmCham, Malta is a non-profit organisation that was established to facilitate trade between Malta and the United States. AmCham (Malta) is an associate member of the European Council of American Chambers of Commerce (ECACC), and is also an associate member of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce

Dr. Anton L. Tabone LL.D became a member of AmCham - Malta in 2005. Dr. Tabone is a former diplomat in the Foreign Services of the Government Malta having served at Malta's Permanent Mission to the United Nations in New York City and as Consul of Malta to the Maltese Community in the States of New York, Connecticut and New Jersey between the years 1996 and 2000. Dr. Tabone has business interests in New York City, is a partner at GMTD Law Firm (Valletta and Victoria, Gozo) and is a Director of Renaissance Productions Ltd.
